- principles;
- Conceptualize and design learning materials that will better facilitate learning during trainings; and

It is expected that the Content Specialist will coordinate and consult with critical stakeholders and subject matter experts to ensure proper scoping and appropriateness of content.

4. Scope of Work of the Consultant are as follows:

The tasks of the Content Specialist will be to:

- Review the Makilahok Guidance Notes on Enhanced BDPM, Participatory Situational Analysis, Community Procurement, Community Finance and Community Monitoring as primary reference materials; Familiarize themselves with KC-NCDDP operational policies and/or procedure manuals on Participatory Situational Analysis, Community Procurement, Community Finance and Community Monitoring;
- Develop an Inception Report/Work Plan based on the reviews conducted above
 - Propose approach and working timetable for the engagement;
 - Indicate outline and indicative content of training modules, toolkits, and learning materials;
- Conceptualize and develop training modules, toolkits, and learning materials on all Makilahok Guidance Notes on CDD-Supporting Thematic Areas, in consultation and close coordination with KC-NCDDP;
 - Identify the appropriate instructional strategies for attaining the learning objectives of the training on Makilahok;
 - Ensure that all contents of the toolkits are user-friendly and engaging to intended users;
 - Provide creative guidance on how the visual elements of the learning materials will help communicate key concepts more effectively;
- Assist during the conduct of pilot testing the training modules, toolkits, and learning materials, in coordination with DSWD;
- Revise and finalize all training modules, toolkits, and learning materials based on inputs of KC-NCDDP;
- Administer consultation and coordination meetings as needed; and
- Complete related tasks as may be reasonably requested by KC-NCDDP.
