1.0 RATIONALE

The general rule on the payment of extraordinary and miscellaneous expenses to government officials entitled to subject privilege under the General Appropriations Act is that it shall be made strictly on non-computable or reimbursement basis. Following this, corresponding claim for reimbursement of such expenses shall be supported by receipts and/or other documents.

However, Paragraph 4, Item III, on General Audit Principles and Guidelines, of COA Circular No. 89-300, dated 21 March 1989, provides that if receipts and other documents are not available, the claim for extraordinary expenses may be supported "by a certification executed by the official concerned that the expenses sought to be reimbursed have been incurred for any of the purposes contemplated" under pertinent provisions of the General Appropriations Act. In the case of miscellaneous expenses incurred for an office specified under the same law, the "certification shall be executed solely by the head of the office."

2.0 OBJECTIVES

This Order, thus, is issued to provide guidelines on the payment/disbursement of Extraordinary and Miscellaneous Expenses to concerned officials of the Department for 2002 and onwards, unless amended, pursuant to the provisions of Section 23 of the General Provisions of Republic Act No. 9162 or the General Appropriations Act (GAA) for CY 2002 and subsequent GAA's thereafter. This is also implemented in consistency with COA rules and regulations and in uniformity with the practices of other agencies of the National Government.
