ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

NO. 73
Series of 2003

I. Background

On May 26, 2003, the Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003 (Republic Act No. 9208), signed into law by President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo. This Act aims to institute policies to eliminate trafficking in persons especially women and children, establishes the necessary institutional mechanisms for the protection and support of victims of trafficking and provides penalties for its violators.

A major institutional mechanism established under this law is the Inter-Agency Council Against Trafficking (IACAT) chaired by the Secretary of the Department of Justice (DOJ) and co-chaired by the Secretary of the DSWD. Other members of the Council are: the Secretary of the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA), the Secretary of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), the Administrator of the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration (POEA), the Commissioner of the Bureau of Immigration, the Director-General of the Philippine National Police (PNP), the Chairperson of the National Commission on the Role of Filipino Women (NCRFW), and three (3) representatives from NGOs, who shall be composed of one representative each from among the sectors representing women, overseas Filipino workers (OFWs) and children, with a proven track record of involvement in the prevention and suppression of trafficking in persons as stipulated in Section 20g of the Act.

In its implementation, the DSWD shall perform the following functions:

1. Co-lead with the DOJ in the promulgation of its implementing rules and regulations (Sec. 21b, 29);

2. Designate the Department’s permanent representatives to the Council who shall have a rank not lower than an Assistant Secretary or its equivalent to meetings (Sec. 20g);
3. Implement protective and rehabilitative programs and services to trafficked persons (Sec. 16b);

4. Provide counseling and temporary shelter (Sec’s. 16b, 23 a & b);

5. Develop a system for accreditation of NGOs for the purpose of establishing centers and programs for intervention in various levels of the community (Sec. 16b).

II. Common Roles and Responsibilities of IACAT Member Agencies

1. Develop policies and programs supportive of and consistent with the objectives of the Act;

2. Enhance the capability of its officers and personnel involved in trafficking issues and concerns through appropriate training and staff support programs;

3. Undertake information, education and advocacy campaigns against trafficking in persons;
