ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
No. 15
Series of 2018

SUBJECT: Amendment of the Administrative Order No. 05 Dated 14 May 2012

This Memorandum is being issued to amend the following items of the AO No. 5, s. 2012, on the DSWD Guidelines on Gender and Development (GAD) Mainstreaming, to read as:

Item I. (Additional Rationale)

With the series of policy issuances from the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW) i.e. Memorandum Circular 2017-03, Joint Memorandum Circular No. 2014-01 and 2015-04 and the implementation of Gender Mainstreaming and Monitoring System (GMMS), it is vital to amend the DSWD Administrative Order No. 5 s. 2012.

Relative to the implementation of GMMS, the agency's GAD Plan and Budget (GPB) and GAD Accomplishment Report (GAD AR) shall be coursed thru the said system. On the other hand, the two recently issued PCW policies have an implication on what will be the important elements and arrangement on the preparation of GPBs and GAD ARs at the Central and Field Office level.

Item II (Additional Legal Bases)

6. The Philippine Commission on Women (PCW) Memorandum Circular No. 2014-01 – Integration of Women, Peace and Security Programs, Activities, and Projects in Annual GAD Plans and Budgets (GPBs) and GAD Accomplishment Reports (GAD AR).

Item III, Additional Objectives

6. To reiterate the support of the Secretary as GFPS Chairperson to ensure that all women and men are protected and not being discriminated in the workplace. Similarly, DSWD facilities and processes are gender responsive to the needs of its client and employees and adopt gender fair languages in all its policy issuances and pronouncements.

7. To guide the Department in preparing annual GPBs and GAD ARs that shall be course through the GMMS particularly the field offices’ submission, review, and endorsement of their respective GPBs and GAD ARs.

8. To incorporate those women’s needs and concerns in pre, during, and post-conflict affected areas and are to be integrated in the annual GPBs and GAD ARs of the agency.

9. To assess gender responsiveness of major program/project of the Department using the Harmonized Gender and Development Guidelines [HGDG] as a tool to identify strengths and areas for improvement concerning the different gender mainstreaming entry points namely: policy, program, people, and enabling mechanisms. GAD budget attribution would help the OBS and Field Offices meet the minimum five percent 5% GAD budget.

Item V, Additional Definition of Terms

- Gender Mainstreaming and Monitoring System – the PCW online system for managing GAD profiles, GPBs, and GAD ARs, as well as for generating GAD related reports i.e. monitor government compliance to the Magna Carta of Women [MCW], Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), Beijing Platform for Action [BPfA], among others.

Item VI, Additional General Guidelines

9. In the preparation of the GPB, OBS and Field Offices may use its approved budget for the current year as basis in computing the minimum five percent (5%) requirement.

10. It shall be necessary for the Field Offices to conduct gender assessment to determine attribution of certain programs.

11. The GPB shall be integrated in the Budget Proposal, Work and Financial Plan (WFP) of the Department, the cost of which shall be at least five percent (5%) of the total agency’s budget.

12. The Department shall include in the GPBs and GAD ARs specific programs, activities, and projects in addressing women, peace and security concerns.

13. The determination of compliance with the GPB shall be by agency and not by regional or field offices.
14. Each Office, Bureau, Service [OBS] and Field Office shall prepare, review, and submit their GPBs and GAD ARs using the GMMS. The review shall focus on the alignment of the GPB based on the following:

- Overall GAD framework and agenda of the Department
